SIDE/COCKTAIL TABLE/OBJECT

Introducing our Urchin Cocktail Table, a stunning fusion of artistry and nature. Inspired by the intricate textures of sea urchins, this table is hand-textured to create an ocean-inspired tactile experience. Each facet of the table's surface is meticulously carved, reflecting the organic beauty and complexity found in marine life.

Whether used as an accent table, a cocktail table with glass, or simply as an object d'art, this piece is a conversation starter.
